About Dengeki: Combined with Kotaku and Dengeki, Dengeki has the information and insider information regarding the Japanese gaming industry. Dengeki Online features game developer interviews, editorials, and guides from Dengeki. Links: Dengeki: Kotaku: Comments from Testimony: Dengeki Online: Testimony of Hitomi Kiryu: "According to my investigation, the material used in the murder weapon is the same as those used in Japan. The police report said "unknown's blood" is on the crime scene. I found the same DNA as the victim on the dead body, so the body belongs to the victim. The hotel staff and the witness I interrogated all said that they did not see anyone else. So they were killed by only one person. I think that the police failed to find the true murderer. I'd like to investigate further by myself. From the testimony of Imiko Taguchi: "The murder weapon is still the same. It's the same one I used in the game. A missing video file: "I've got some footage that you haven't seen yet, but I lost it. I'd like to recover it. I see. I was bored in class today, and checked my phone. I saw that message in my house while I was sleeping. I left the message on the website too." (Interview) From testimony of Goro Imura: "I'm aware of the concept of the game, and have seen it. It's a good game. (Question) As for you, what do you think of the game? I'll be thinking about it. (Interview) From the testimony of Sora Igarashi: "I played it
