Tafsir of the Holy Quran - Maulana Sayyed Abul Kalam Azad - Download PDF .As the legislation passed, it was dubbed as the biggest tax reform in 30 years. A bill that has been in the making for more than a decade, with the cost of its implementation reaching an amount of Rs16,000 crore, has finally become a reality. The Union Budget for 2019-20 was presented in Parliament on Wednesday. While the first part of the Budget, which will continue till 2019, addressed the concerns of ordinary people, the second part - especially the finance part - will address the concerns of the businesses that will be paying these additional taxes. A major chunk of taxes

mentioned in the Union Budget - the Goods and Services Tax (GST) - is levied on the businesses as a mode of increasing their tax burden, which will be coming down to around 20 per cent. This means, no more import of goods that will be taxed, and a decrease in the tax burden of common man. Although tax rates have been made more progressive, the overall tax burden on the common man will come down. While the tax on petrol, for instance, will be Rs1.44 per litre, it was Rs2.58 in 2017. The excise duty on the goods will also come down to an extent, because the tax rates have been made less punitive. The economic tax burden for an average person is d0c515b9f4
