Through our advocacy and support programs, we foster partnerships with the broader conservation community, to improve the lives of wild cats in the wild and reduce their extinction risk in the wild. Each of us has a responsibility to conserve the habitats that provide a safe haven for the cats and the lynx. We can only do so if the land and people who own it, work with it, use it, live there, or visit it agree with us and support our efforts. The need for comprehensive conservation is vast. Feline Conservation Foundation works throughout the Americas, Asia, Africa and Europe, partnering with governments, NGOs and local communities to achieve the conservation of wild cats and their habitats. Our advocacy programs focus on the European wildcat, lynx, bobcat, clouded leopard, serval, caracal and puma. d - 2 3 8 = 1 1 4 4 * d f o r d . - 1 7
